

Achievement for All

The 411 on RTI and PBIS
(and other acronyms)

October 8 and 9, 2009

www.nwea-ec.org

Tom Guskey

Tom Guskey will open Thursday helping us assess the situation!

Bob Kann

Bob Kann will be presenting sessions Thursday including problem solving and energizing teachers.

Will Schmid

Will Schmid will be working with music teachers all day on Thursday with hands-on, voice-on, movement sessions that explores hand drumming in the Middle East, Europe, Caribbean, and Americas.

Jane Kitson

Sing and play with finger puppets and Mother Goose.

Featured speakers

George Batsch

George Batsch will open our Friday with discussions about RTI and what it means to you in the classroom.

Patrick Schwarz

Join Patrick's session on autism and other special education issues.

Doug Buehl

Build inquiring minds with Doug Buehl's sessions on reading and the academic knowledge gap.

Professor Gizmo

Professor Gizmo (aka Gary Kruger) will share his knowledge with some fun science experiments.

Donna Whyte

Donna Whyte will join us both days with a K-12 focus in reading, classroom management, games and songs.

Corwin Kronenberg

Join Corwin Kronenberg and learn strategies for motivation and success in the classroom.

Also featuring...local practitioners with sessions on:

- Family involvement
- K-12 administration
- Cultivating creative minds
- Best teaching strategies
- Serving homeless students
- Management strategies
- Internet safety
- Teaching abroad
- Global literacy
- Task-oriented learning
- Stress reduction
- and much more

Early Bird
Pricing Discount

$30 before 10/8
$35 at door

*Meet your PDP requirements

*Graduate credit option

*New food options

*Flu shots

*Phy Ed Mini-Conference

Questions? Contact Cheryl Hopkins at nweacheryl@yahoo.com